INFORMATION REGARDING THE FILING OF A FICTITIOUS BUSINESS NAME STATEMENT

- Be certain the information in the statement is correct and complete before filing it. You cannot make changes to the statement once it has been filed. Any changes would require the Abandonment & publications and then filing of a new statement, payment of the filing fees again, and publication in a newspaper in San Benito County.

- The County Clerk's Office cannot refuse to file a fictitious business name statement because the name is already being used by someone else.
- If there is a conflict between business owners using the same or similar names, it becomes a legal matter between the business owners.
- Residence address (where you live) must be listed under the registrant information. If the registrant is a corporation/LLC, an address (not PO Box) and the State of Incorporation/Organization must be listed.

- All original filings as well as new filings with a change in the facts from the previous filing must be published. The statement must be published in an adjudicated newspaper, once per week for four consecutive weeks. The first publication must begin within thirty days of the date the statement was filed in the County Clerk's Office. See attached information on Page 4 of this application.
- The proof of publication must be filed in the County Clerk's Office. Please check with the newspaper to see if they will forward the original to our office for filing.
- The statement is a REFILE WITH NO CHANGES if NO information (including residence address of the owner(s)) changed from the previous filing. Statements filed as a REFILE WITH NO CHANGES do not need to be published provided they are refiled within 40 days of the expiration of the current statement.
- The statement is valid for five years from the date it is filed in the County Clerk's Office, unless there is a change in any information (except the registered owners address).
