NOTIFICATION OF PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY'S REQUEST TO INCREASE RATES FOR GAS TRANSMISSION AND STORAGE APPLICATION (A.17-11-009)

DEC 04 2017

JOE PAUL GONZALEZ, COUNTY CLERK
BY: [Signature]
DEPUTY CLERK

Summary

On November 17, 2017, Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) filed its Gas Transmission and Storage (GT&S) application with the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) requesting to increase rates for the following:

- Comply with new regulatory requirements for the safety of gas transmission and storage facilities
- Infrastructure investments to ensure gas transmission pipelines and storage facilities continue to operate safely and reliably
- Retirement of two gas storage fields in order to reduce costs to customers in the long term, reduce risk and streamline operations

Related to the programs above, PG&E is requesting a total increase of $1.317 billion to be collected in rates from customers during the period 2019-2021.

Background

The GT&S Application is submitted approximately every three years by PG&E. The scope of the Application includes gas transmission and gas storage facilities. In this Application, PG&E forecasts the costs necessary to operate gas transmission and storage facilities in a safe and reliable manner. This Application also proposes how the costs to operate PG&E's transmission and storage business will be assigned to each customer class. The Application covers the years 2019-2021, although PG&E has also forecast the costs necessary for 2022 should the CPUC or stakeholders wish to consider extending the case into a fourth year.

How will PG&E's Application affect me?

A summary of the rate impact for PG&E's gas customers was provided in a bill insert sent directly to customers in December. For each year covered in this Application, PG&E is requesting increases of $289 million in 2019, $135 million in 2020 and $180 million in 2021. If approved, this application would increase rates effective beginning January 1, 2019.

Based on rates currently in effect, the bill for a typical residential non CARE customer averaging 34 therms per month of gas usage would increase from $54.85 to $55.96, or 2.0 percent. Actual impacts will vary depending on energy usage across the months.

How will PG&E's Application affect customers who buy gas from a third party?

Certain residential customers only receive gas distribution services from PG&E and purchase their gas from a third party. PG&E does not purchase gas for these customers. The impact of PG&E's Application on the transportation component of the bill is an average increase of $0.65, or 1.6 percent. Transportation components of the customer bill are the same regardless of whether the customer obtains gas service from PG&E or from a third party.

CPUC process

This Application will be assigned to an Administrative Law Judge (Judge) who will determine how to receive evidence and other related documents necessary for the CPUC to establish a record upon which to base its decision. Evidentiary hearings may be held where parties will present their testimony and may be subject to cross-examination by other parties. These evidentiary hearings are open to the public, but only those who are formal parties in the case can participate.

After considering all proposals and evidence presented during the hearings, the assigned Judge will issue a proposed decision which may adopt PG&E's proposal, modify it or deny it. Any of the five CPUC Commissioners may sponsor an alternate decision. The proposed decision, and any alternate decisions, will be discussed and voted upon at a scheduled CPUC Voting Meeting.

The Office of Ratepayer Advocates (ORA) may review this Application. ORA is the independent consumer advocate within the CPUC with a legislative mandate to represent investor-owned utility customers to obtain the lowest possible rate for service consistent with reliable and safe service levels. ORA has a multi-disciplinary staff with expertise in economics, finance, accounting and engineering.
